

How to Resolve the Inappropriate ArchiveOne Licence Detection Error

<https://campus.barracuda.com/doc/68358012/>

ArchiveOne periodically performs an internal check against the current software licence to ensure it is valid. If there is an issue with the internal checksum of the current licence string, the following error displays in the ArchiveOne service tracing:

EnsureValidLicence:EventLogged inappropriate licence detected while checking key

To resolve this error, contact the C2C Licensing Team (c2clicensing_team@barracuda.com) for assistance with your licence key.
