

United Kingdom IP Migration

<https://campus.barracuda.com/doc/78809099/>

This article affects customers leveraging Barracuda's United Kingdom (UK) datacenter, and applies to the following products:

- Barracuda Essentials
- Barracuda Email Security Gateway using Cloud Protection Layer (CPL)

In March 2018 Barracuda Networks added a new IP range—35.176.92.96/27—to its Barracuda Email Security Service, UK infrastructure.

To avoid email delivery issues, you must configure your firewall to accept email from both 64.235.158.0/24 and our new IP range 35.176.92.96/27 before Monday, September 24, 2018.
