Is Intronis HIPAA compliant?

Overview

Understanding the HIPAA requirements can be a challenge. Intronis is committed to HIPAA compliance, and we have developed a library of data backup resources to help our partners better understand the regulation, take steps to comply, and even leverage the opportunity for business success.

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) has created both opportunities and challenges for MSPs backing up sensitive medical records. The September 2013 Omnibus Ruling places further restrictions on everyone involved in the “chain of custody” of electronic medical records—even when stored offsite in a backup and recovery data center.
