WE'RE OVERRUN WITH TRAINING CONTENT!

With Cybersecurity month in October just a few months away, we'd like to take a moment to reassure you that we'll have everything you need to make the most of it!

For starters, here's an overview of the animated training modules you'll find in the PhishLine Content Center Marketplace™!

P101A Series (4)

The 'core four' modules that bring basic phishing and cybersecurity concepts to life.

A101A Series (6)

Next-level awareness training covering topics such as cyberattacks, mobile device security, passwords and more.

A102A Series (12)

In-depth training on a variety of topics essential to building a well-rounded cybersecurity workforce.

In addition, we have more than 800 simulated phishing email templates and landing pages, an interactive game, infographics, screensavers—and much more in development.

For additional information about the content that's available now, click the 'emails' and 'training' buttons below or ask your PhishLine consultant!
