Click Thinking

January 2021

NEW THIS MONTH

We're kicking the year off with an updated newsletter and lots of new content you can use now to turn front-line employees into your strongest line of defense! Here's what's new:

'Phishellaneous' Game

This Jeopardy-inspired training game covers core concepts from several of our most popular modules giving your employees a fun, new way to complete training!

What is Phishing	Types of Phishing	Understanding URLs	Spotting Phishing Scams
$100	$100	$100	$100
$200	$200	$200	$200

NCSA Best Practices Training

Produced by the National Cyber Security Alliance, these entertaining 'office life' vignettes teach best practices on a range of topics. Most run two minutes or less to make training quick!

CONTENT CENTER

If you haven't visited the Content Center lately, you're in for a treat. We've added hundreds of templates covering a wide range of topics, including:

- Emails based on real-world threats flagged by Barracuda's own security tools.
- High-engagement phishing emails leveraging pandemic and political content.
- Redesigned Click Thinking Spotlights covering a wide range of topics, like Ransomware, Data Breaches and Catfishing.

PRODUCT UPDATES

- You now have the ability to send phishing campaigns using your own domain. This is an effective way to simulate business email compromise and account takeover threats.
- We've developed hundreds of new phishing email templates representing popular brands and services around the world in both English and native languages.

UPCOMING

- Office 365 Connector Quickly and easily create an address book for testing and training by connecting to Office 365. Be on the lookout for more information announcing this exciting new feature!
- In-product messaging and tutorials Planned for release in February, this feature enhances the user experience by providing training, tours, reference, and product announcements.
- More games Several games with crossword, fishing, racing and other fun themes are being developed for release in 2021.
