Product News and Updates

NEW THIS MONTH

Short month with big deliverables

Yes, this month is shorter but it's still long on top-notch content you can put to use right now. Highlights include:

- Romance “Catfishing” Scams Infographic

Tips to understanding and avoiding these devastating scams.

- Internet Best Practices Infographic

A refresher for keeping employees safe when going online.

- Click Thinking Express

Three more modules tailored for today's attentions spans.

In addition, we continue to work behind the scenes to enhance the Barracuda Security Awareness Training platform for you!

Safer Internet Day, Month, Year

National Safer Internet Day was February 8—but we're making it an ongoing celebration. To join the party, check out our three new Click Thinking Express modules on internet safety available now in the Content Center:

- Public Wifi
- Web Browsing and Work
- Internet of Things

The fastest way to these insightful mini-modules is to click the training icon in the Content Center and use the search term CTE. To supplement this training with the Internet Best Practices Infographic, access this month's Click Thinking bundle by clicking on the dashboard footer in the Barracuda Security Awareness Training platform.

Training

THE DIFFERENCE IS REAL

When it comes to helping employees identify phishing emails, we believe the more authentic they are the better. So, we've devoted a section of our email catalog to Real World Threats.

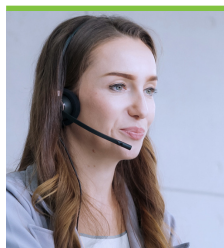

Emails in this category have been flagged by Barracuda security, then purged of malicious links and files so you can use them for training simulations. With more than 150 to choose from and new ones added monthly, you're guaranteed to have something authentic for your next training campaign.

QUICK TIP: LET THE CALENDAR GUIDE YOU

If you're struggling to build your next simulated phishing campaign, let the calendar help. In February, try a romance scam for a Valentine's Day spin. During filing season try an email with an income tax theme. Use the 'Seasonal' search filter so see what's available.
