Cybersecurity Awareness Month Preview

It's Almost Here!

We're closing in on October, which means Cybersecurity Awareness Month is just around the corner. To help you make the most of it we're introducing Click Thinking Interactive Training—hands-on learning that's streamlined and fun!

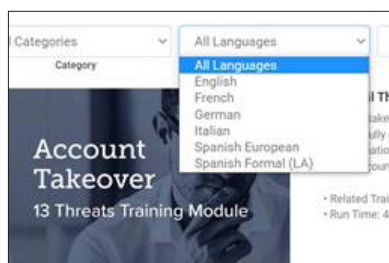

Packed with video shorts, games and engaging infographics, they're perfect for time-pressed employees who can complete a typical session in less than 15 minutes. These instant training favorites are perfect for awareness month or any time of year.

One of a growing number of Click Thinking Interactive Training Modules available in the Content Center.

Quick Launch in More Languages

Our Quick Launch campaigns put phishing simulations on the fast track. With the addition of several new languages in the Quick Launch category, running campaigns in a variety of languages can be just as speedy. Be sure to check the Content Center regularly for new languages. If you need help setting up a campaign in English or any language, contact Barracuda Support.
