Product News and Updates

NEW THIS MONTH

Celebrate the Holidays Cyber-Safely!

Cybercriminals will be working overtime during the holidays to scam, phish and trick the unsuspecting. With more employees going online to shop and connect, one wrong click could mean disaster. Protect your people and network with our growing collection of holiday and seasonal training tools:

Online Holiday Shopping Modules

We've released a new Click Thinking Express version of the existing module that warns viewers of the dangers lurking behind 'too-good-to-be-true' Black Friday deals and other threats.

Seasonal Phishing Emails

From Amazon shopping deals to holiday humor, we have the click-worthy emails you need to create simulated phishing campaigns that yield accurate results.

Find these and other helpful training tools in the Content Center using 'holiday' and 'seasonal' filters.

SECURITY AWARENESS TRAINING
formerly Barracuda PhishLine

We continue to update the Barracuda Security Awareness Training platform to provide an optimal user experience:

Quick Launch Content Enhancements

Efforts to provide more quick launch campaigns continue to yield greater opportunities for clients to get up and running fast.

IP Address Change

We're migrating to a new cloud provider at the end of November. To ensure a seamless transition, please review the Email Allow List and Best Practices documentation on Campus beforehand.

Benchmarking Completed

The October benchmarking campaign just wrapped up. For results, like industry click rates and access to additional benchmarking materials visit Campus or contact Barracuda Support.

THE KEY TO SECURITY

Staying vigilant this holiday season and year-round is the surest way to minimize incidents and avoid being victimized. We're here to help you 24/7/365 with the tools, training and support you need to keep information security top of mind.
