NEW THIS MONTH

Spring Into Training

Spring is an ideal time take a fresh look at the tools we offer to fortify your organization against cyberattacks, including:

- A growing catalog of Click Thinking Interactive Training Modules.
- Nearly 3,500 emails and landing pages for phishing simulations.
- More than one-hundred animated and short-form videos.

With ransomware up 25%, according to the 2022 Verizon Data Breach Investigations Report, now is a great time to deploy these training aids—and turn everyday employees into a strong line of defense. Check them out in the Content Center.

13 Email Threat Types You Can Learn From

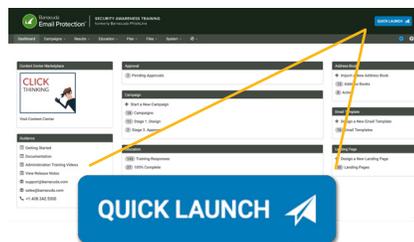

For an inside look at the breadth and scope bad actors will go to compromise your network using email, check out Barracuda's 13 Email Threat Types report. Part white paper, part infographic, this informative, 15-minute read is tailor-made for busy information security professionals. Download it today.

Start Fast, Go Farther With Quick Launch

Now you can deploy video training invites in as little as 30 seconds thanks to an expanded Quick Launch catalog that includes our complete U.S. language set.

No more time-consuming campaign building means time for other priorities. Like sending 13 email threat simulations through Quick Launch, too—another addition to the catalog. Just click the Quick Launch icon on the dashboard to get started.

LOOKING AHEAD

Benchmarking Is Coming—Don't Miss Out !

SAT's Spring Benchmarking campaign is your first chance this year to get a baseline understanding of your organization's information security stance. Don't miss these important dates:

• Sign Up Window:	Now through April 5
• Campaign Launch:	April 10
• Campaign Runs Through:	April 21
• Results Shared:	April 24

Benchmarking is simple. You sign up and provide a company address book, we run the campaign and send a customized report when finished that includes click rate, peer industry comparisons and more. If you've benchmarked before, consider doing so again. Each unique campaign provides a deeper understanding of employee behavior and risk. To check out previous campaigns, visit our benchmarking archive. For Spring campaign sneak peek, check the benchmarking overview in this month's Click Thinking bundle. Spoiler alert—it's personal! Contact Barracuda Support to sign up.
