After careful consideration, we have made the decision to discontinue the hybrid and work-at-home model instituted during the pandemic. While we understand that many of you will be impacted we believe that a strong and product workforce is one that is united under one roof.

CEO Gift Card Request

Hi (email-firstName),

Apologies in advance – I normally wouldn't reach out but my admin is on leave and I hear you have a reputation for getting things done. We have an opportunity to support local charities that provide food, clothing and home goods to community families in need.

This sat in my email for awhile, but if you can act on this request today our company can still make a difference. This link will take you to a form that will authorize us to buy gift cards at a discount to several participants (like Target, Walmart and others).

I'm not authorizing you to buy them, I'll do that once you complete the form and send me the codes they'll give you. I just don't have the time to do this today, and it's the last chance to take part.

When this is over, I'll make sure you're recognized for your efforts. Because I really appreciate it!

Thanks again and take care,

President and CEO

Daylight Savings Legislation

To: All Employees
Importance: High
Date: (emailSendTime), F [^America/Chicago']

You may have heard that Congress recently voted to standardize Daylight Savings Time guidelines across the continental United States (see article for details). As a result, we will not be turning clocks back this fall or forward in the Spring for the foreseeable future.

While our organization will adjust to these changes we understand there will be an impact and that some of you may have questions. To this end, we've developed a Daylight Savings Time Change Policy we ask that you review and acknowledge here.

Thank you for your cooperation and immediate attention to this matter. We look forward to implementing this change with minimal disruption.
