Product News and Updates

NEW THIS MONTH

We Take on AI Vishing

Our new AI Vishing Training Module helps employees recognize and combat voice phishing threats effectively—protecting your organization and staying one step ahead of cybercriminals. Visit the Content Center today and check it out!

Summertime Training

It's Spring, but we're making training the least of your worries with lifestyle bundles you can run with this summer and beyond! Our travel bundle helps employees navigate time off without compromising your organization. Other bundles cover:

- FlexWork: keys to juggling info security and workplace logistics.
- Social: security tips for connecting on social and in everyday life.
- Gadgets: a risk averse guide to using wifi-connected gadgets.
- Shopping: protecting your info when shopping from your device.

Click the Click Thinking icon on the dashboard to access them all!

What's New? Let us show you!

Delivering top-notch training and simulated email phishes regularly is what we strive for every day. But with so much being added, how can you instantly find the most current? Our 'What's New In Security Awareness Training' Campus page highlights the emails, training modules and more that have been added to the Content Center over the previous months. Just click the What's New? icon on the Security Awareness Training dashboard for instant access—try it today!

Spring Benchmarking Highlights

The April Benchmarking Campaign is complete! We leveraged the highly relevant topic of AI acceptable use policies as a phishing email lure. Statistical highlights include:

- 60 organizations participated
- Nearly 50,000 emails sent.
- Average click rate: 9.10%

Our next benchmarking opportunity is in October. Watch for sign-up details in the September edition of Click Thinking. Want to benchmark sooner? Previous campaigns are always available to run—just search the term "benchmark" in the Content Center.

QUICK LAUNCH

Quick Launch Makes it Easy

Running a simulated phishing campaign slip your mind this month? Just click the Quick Launch button in the upper right corner of the SAT dashboard for instant access to a growing catalog of ready-to-go simulations. Just choose the campaign, follow the prompts, and you'll be up and running in minutes!
